FRANK MCCABE IN 'THE IRISH SENATOR'

It is without doubt the best farce produced in years. It is a farce comedy with a good plot, which is a rare literary achievement. It is replete with humorous complications, running over with witty thrusts and choice selections of original music, pretty dances and ensembles executed by clever comedians and pretty girls.

MERRY WIDOW CHAPEAU

THE IDOL OF THE JOKER HAS BEEN DETHRONED BY THE NATL. ASSN. OF MILLINERS.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 4.—The Merry Widow has been dethroned. The National Association of Retail Milliners has said the worst that befalls the monarch of millinery connections is the loss of last year's hats. What the milliner and the actress and the playgoer of tonight's millinery fad had to do to do the milliners have accomplished.

Miss Marie, head of the reception committee for the National Association of retail milliners, which met tonight in the Palmer House, sounds the death knell of the broad-brimmed hat. "It is not the mode correct," says Madame. And femininity and womanhood are the order of the millinery fad, which is the order of the millinery fad.

'BRYAN DAY' IN FLORIDA

THE GREAT COMMONER AND WIFE ARE GUESTS OF TAMPA AND FLORIDA FAIR.

Tampa, Fla., Feb. 4.—William Jennings Bryan and Mrs. Bryan are today the guests of the Florida 35th winter fair and of Tampa and the day is termed "Bryan Day" at the fair. Governor Albert W. Gilchrist and his cabinet are here and during the morning Mr. Bryan was the center of an immense crowd of Florida Democrats in the grounds of the Tampa Bay Hotel where Gov. Gilchrist introduced to the Commoner those who desired to meet him.

This afternoon Mr. Bryan is at the races where at 2:30 the "Bryan handicap" will be run and the winning jockey will be presented with a cash by Mr. Bryan. At 4 o'clock this afternoon Mr. Bryan will preside at the laying of the cornerstone for the new $100,000 Y. M. C. A. building in Tampa and will deliver an appropriate address.

The evening will bring a brilliant scene. Madame Calve is at the hotel and this evening at 8 o'clock she will give a recital in the Tampa Bay Casino at which Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will be guests of honor in separate boxes. In Mr. Bryan's box will be the governor of Florida and other distinguished public men and Mrs. Bryan will have as her guests the governor's mother—for Gen. Gilchrist is a bachelor governor—and other ladies. After the recital Madame Calve will share the honors with Mr. and Mrs. Bryan at a banquet originally planned for the Bryans by the democrats of Florida and after the banquet the guests will take part in the first formal ball of the season in the elegant oval Sun Room of the hotel.

Tomorrow Madame Calve will be the guest of honor at the fair and a formal reception will be held in the French parlor of the Tampa Bay in her honor. In the evening line will be Mrs. Gilchrist and other leaders of society in Florida.
